MISCELLANEOUS.

To the Farmers of East Tennessee.

OUR armies need all the Hogs and Cattle you can raise. We will pay the prices which will be paid for pork Hogs, Beets, and Corn.

I have been assigned to the purchase of Hogs, Beets, Corn, &c., in East Tennessee, and will appoint a sufficient number of agents to assist me, and define their territory, and will in due time publish their names.

I have determined to make prices "uniform" and liberal, and I hope every hog in East Tennessee suitable for work, will be fattened.

My office, for the present, is Atlanta, Ga.—will remove to Knoxville soon. Letters addressed to me at either point will be attended to.

MASONIC FEMALE INSTITUTE,

CLEVELAND, TENN.

Rev. J. N. Bradshaw, Principal.

THE next session of this Institute will commence Monday the 1st day of September next, under the direction and protection of the Rev. Mr. Bradshaw, who has had charge of it for the last ten months.

The Trustees in making this announcement would most especially appeal to all citizens who have daughters to educate, to send them to this institution. Mr. Bradshaw has had charge of the school for the last ten months during which time he has rendered ample, and we might say, universal satisfaction to the parents of the students. There are now 150 students for men to educate their daughters than there are men to pay for them.

Everything is done for the comfort of the students, and is constantly surrounded by striking scenes of affectionate regard, and honest dealing, and is done to meet at the polls.

Every partisan of Slavery and sympathy with the Slaveholders' Rebellion.

The great Rumspring interest, organized as a political power, and lavishing funds as well as efforts in behalf of the Democratic ticket.

Two hundred thousand voters who "never voted for any other than the Democratic ticket, and never will," though the ticket were all made up of Fernando and Ben Woods, and undignifiedly favorable to revolutionary usurpation and despotism.

Thousands whose god is McLean, and who, finding the war expensive and burdensome, are anxious for peace at any price.

Every coward who fears being drafted.

Every sneak who has been told that Seymour's election will relieve him from the payment of War Taxes, and actually fool enough to believe it.

The depressing effect of the recent elections and their unexpected adverse results.

The absence at the seat of war of at least one hundred thousand of our bravest and best two-thirds of them ardent Republicans, and good share of the remainder Union War Democrats of the school of Dickinson, Fayerweather and Tremain.

General dissatisfaction with the slow progress, or no progress of our armies, and a wide spread feeling that through the incapacity, ineffectiveness, or insincerity of our military leaders, the blood and treasure of the loyal nations are being sacrificed in vain.

And also it is whispered that—

"The Yankees are coming to town, some in rags, and some in tags."

If we had a strolling company of players it would finish the picture, and raise us to the sum of provincial felicity. A steam engine, an organ grinder and monkey, a drum and a fife, a theatrical corps, and a street full of gypsies are enough for one community, during war times.

A Good Hotel.—The Central House of Chattanooga, and has been for some time gaining great reputation for the essentials of order, neatness and attention to its many guests.

According to Capt. Wm. W. Will, of the 1st Regt. of Inf., 1st Tenn. Vol. Inf., the Central House was left in the rear of the army near Sparta, Tennessee, at the time of its advance early in September. When last heard from he was complaining of illness. I will pay a liberal reward for any information in regard to his present whereabouts, or to his destination, or to his health.
